

NATIONAL CONVERSATIONS: RACE, RELATIONSHIPS AND RESOURCES

Join Big Brothers Big Sisters of America for a candid conversation about the impact racism has in our country.

During this time of turmoil and social unrest, what can be done to ensure that young people are protected and heard? How can mentors play a role in social justice?
And what can nonprofit leaders do, when the conversation about race is uncomfortable?

Special guests from the National Urban League and Mindset Strategies along with Big Brothers Big Sisters leaders from across the country will share their experience and offer guidance that can lead to healing, and start a path to transform systems that are inclusive for all.

Thursday,
August 6th
